INSTRUCTIONS FOR SERVICE

The requirements for properly serving a summons and complaint are set forth in Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 4. First, the summons itself must be signed by the clerk and bear the seal of the court, among other requirements. F.R.C.P. 4(a). Once a proper summons has been issued by the court, the plaintiff must serve that summons on the defendants or ask defendants to waive service. F.R.C.P. 4(c), (d). The plaintiff must file proof of service or a waiver signed by defendant with the court within 120 days of filing the complaint. F.R.C.P. 4(l), (m). Plaintiffs may ask defendants to waive service of process. To do so, a plaintiff must mail or deliver a copy of the complaint to the defendant along with a specified notice requesting that the defendant waive service. F.R.C.P. 4(d)(2). The plaintiff must provide 30 days for the defendant to respond and must include a self-addressed stamped envelope by which the defendant can comply with the request. F.R.C.P. 4(d)(2). If the defendant waives service, he or she has 60 days to respond to the plaintiff's complaint; if the defendant refuses to waive service, he or she must pay the plaintiff's costs of service unless he or she can show good cause for failing to waive service. F.R.C.P. 4(d)(2), (3). If the defendant agrees to waive service, the plaintiff must file a copy of the waiver with the court in lieu of filing a proof of service. F.R.C.P. 4(d)(4). Waiver forms are available at the clerk of the court's office. If the defendant does not waive service, the plaintiff must properly serve the defendant with the summons and complaint, following the requirements of federal or State law. F.R.C.P. 4(e). Under federal law, plaintiffs must arrange for someone who is not a party to the case and who is at least 18 years of age to hand deliver a copy of the documents to the defendant, leave copies of the documents at the individual's home with some person of suitable age and discretion who lives there, or deliver a copy of the documents to an agent authorized by appointment or by law to receive service of process for the defendant. F.R.C.P. 4(e)(2).
